PRESS RELEASE

TECHNOLOGY PARTNERS PLACES 10TH ON ST. LOUIS BUSINESS JOURNAL'S 2019 WOMEN-OWNED BUSINESSES LIST

AMONGST AN INCREASINGLY GROWING CLIMATE OF ST. LOUIS BUSINESSES, LOCAL SOLUTIONS AND STAFFING FIRM STANDS WITH THE CITY'S LEADING COMPANIES

ST. LOUIS, August 22nd, 2019: Technology Partners, a nationally certified women-owned IT staffing and solutions company, has been ranked among the Top 10 largest women-owned businesses in the greater St. Louis region for 2019, according to the St. Louis Business Journal.

Technology Partners rose to 10th in this year's rankings, compared to 14th last year. The rankings are based on annual revenues.

"The region's largest women-owned businesses have had a lasting and exponential impact on the financial health of St. Louis, and further enhanced its reputation of excellence and innovation as a leading American city," said Lisa Nichols, CEO, Technology Partners. "We are honored to be among this list of esteemed women-owned businesses (WOB) in the St. Louis region.

"Technology Partners, specifically, has focused on leading with integrity, equality, and transparency," she added. "With a culture of trust and growth in mind, Technology Partners continues to place people at the forefront of its approach with an emphasis on every voice matters."

Today, women-owned and minority-owned businesses are an important part of the nation's economic engine. According to a recent report from the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO), WOB's generate $1.7 trillion in sales and employ nearly 9 million people.
